Commissioner

Dear Sir

I thought it my duty to write you in regard of my late son Back time he was in the Big war and died 1917. In 3. and it appears to me there is some back time due him and as I find the times pressing hard I suggested in writing you on this matter
As I only got his cheque up to May 1918

And the war ended Nov. so it appears to me I am only now waiting you as I know you can tell me
If there is in more due him I am not looking a pension only would like to know if there were any back money as I have not written you and I know in any case you will reply and tell me what I now ask you of my late back money
If any due him or not
