Russia.

Sir,

Newfoundland Regt.
It is my painful duty to inform you that a report was yesterday received from the War Office notifying the fatality which has overtaken No. 3272, Dominic Foaley, [at] I am to express the deep sympathy of the Newfoundland Government at your irreparable loss.

Your brother died of wounds at the 61st Casualty Clearing Station, France, on the 18/8/17.

If articles or personal property of the late Private Foaley are found, they will be forwarded to this Office, but some little time may probably elapse before their receipt, and they will be naturally subject to customary formalities concerning effects.

Application regarding the disposal of personal effects or of any amount that may eventually be found due to the late Soldier's Estate should be addressed to this Office.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

H. A. Anderson
Major,

Chief Paymaster & Officer i/c Records.

Sir:- Re Estate of No. 3872, Hqs. D. Foley
Deceased

When the above noted soldier enlisted, the address of his next of kin was stated to be Russia, but no more definite address was given. The matter of settling his estate now has to be considered, and I should like your advice on this point.

It would seem that the question to be decided is whether the estate should be considered as "property in Newfoundland" or otherwise. If so considered, it is presumed the amount in the absence of claims from the next of kin or other relative reverts to the Government of Newfoundland. If not so considered, should not the amount be advised to the Secretary, War Office for the purpose of adjustment? I should like to have your opinion.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Minister of Militia.

Sir:

Re Estate of 45272, Pte. D. Foley.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 27th inst. in connection with the estate of the above noted soldier. I find from the records of this Department, sent here by the Pay & Record Office, that the next of kin of Private D. Foley is given as "Stansloff Foley, 1 Cove Street, Moscow, Russia," and the amount at his credit is $62.47.

In reply to your question as to whether his estate should be considered as property in Newfoundland, I think there is no doubt that his estate comes within the jurisdiction of the Newfoundland Court. The money is in the hands of a Department of the Government waiting to be paid out to his legal representative. The Court will grant administration in due course. Before disposing of this money I think an effort should be made to ascertain if his given next of kin, his brother, is still in Moscow. Owing to the unsettled condition of Russia at the present time, and the prospects that its condition will remain unsettled for a long time yet, it may be difficult to get in touch with the brother of deceased. I would advise that the money should remain at the Pay & Record Office until an effort has been made to get in communication with Stansloff Foley. That will be done by this Department. We will send him the customary papers at the address given.

I have the honour to be,
Sir
Your obedient servant,

J. R. Bennett, Esq.,
Minister of Militia.

134. REPLY
Dated 16th February 1922.

Please return ORIGINAL and retain DUPLICATE

I will be glad if you will communicate with the proper authority at the War Office in connection with the disposal of War Medals, of the above mentioned soldier and in accordance with K.R. para. 1764. This man came to Newfoundland in 1912 and worked here for about five years. On joining the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, he gave his home address as Warsaw. While he was living in St. John's, he stayed with Mrs. Wm. Hollett of No. 1, Duckworth Street. From her it is learned that Fowley stated that his father had died before he came to this country, and that his mother died when he had been here about three months. He had one brother who is supposed to have been killed while fighting with the Russian Forces. Fowley was wounded in action, and later died of wounds. This Dept. is therefore unable to dispose of his war medals, and it is requested that the instructions of the War Office may be obtained, please, in relation thereto. The only individual to whom they might be sent appears to be Mrs. Hollett, his landlady and friend. Otherwise, presumably, they must be retained with his army records, or returned to the War Office for disposal.

Reference Obverse.

The matter was taken up with the War Office A.G. 10, and a copy of their reply is enclosed herewith for your information.
