Sergeant R. Grimes,
Fort Townshend,

Dear Sir:-

I had the opportunity of placing your claim for extra pay in connection with Orderly Room work, before the Prime Minister, to whom it was explained that under existing regulations one rate of pay and allowances applied for Orderly Room Sergeants, whereas regulations authorised different rates for the Staff of Militia Hqrs., of the Pay and Record Office, London and of 3rd Echelon. I am instructed to inform you that at the present time the Government regrets that it is unable to authorise new regulations governing pay or allowances.

Yours faithfully,

Lieut.-Col.,

Chief Staff Officer
