Sir,

At a recent meeting of the Pensions & Disabilities Board, the application of Christopher Harding of Renew's, for Pension, on account of his late son #995 W. Harding, Killed in Action, was considered, and the fact, that his son cancelled his Allotment some time previous to his death, was brought to the notice of the Board, but in view of the circumstances of Mr. Harding, the Pensions Board were of the opinion, that the amount of the Allotment should be continued, from the date of the son's decease, as a payment on account of any Pension to which Mr. Harding may later be found to be entitled.

If this opinion meets with your approval, will you kindly authorize continuance of the Allotment, and oblige.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
