To Paymaster

Dear Sir: I understand that pensions are being paid to the men who came home invalided. kindly let me know if there is any thing coming to me. I came home August 5th and am broken in health ever since. I can only work three and four days a week. It is hard to keep a family on that. Please let me know you can do any thing for me.

Dear Sir

I am writing in reference to the separation allowance. Which I understand has been granted to married men. I have served 16 month over-sea and my wife did not receive any allowance or patriotic fund.
If it is true the allowance has been granted I have lost a lot of money which I need badly. I was invalided home in August 5th 1916. Kindly let me know how the matters stand

Yours truly
