Dear Sirs,

It is now nearly eighteen months since I returned from overseas, and I have not yet received my discharge papers. As I was taking a course which was granted by the re-established committee, I thought that was the reason that my papers were held back, but about six months have elapsed since I finished that course, and I have not yet seen the papers, so I think it is about time I had these papers in my possession. Hoping that you will look into the matter, and forward me my discharge papers as quickly as possible.
