12 August, 1916.

Dear Captain O'Grady,

I have read- and enjoyed reading- your paper setting out the duties for Warrant Officers, N.C.O's and Private Soldiers. I now return it.

It is an admirable compilation and would be very useful when put in Book Form.

I take this opportunity for complimenting yourself for your share in so successfully turning out our recent drafts for active service. Capt. Abraham agrees with me that the Barracks are admirably appointed and that the men have improved out of all knowledge since they have had the advantage of being together under one roof in these commodious Barracks.

Yours sincerely

Capt. J. J. O'Grady,
First Newfoundland Regiment.
