EFFECTS: LATE LIEUT. S. R. SMITH.

With reference to your letter 8/10/17 (5768), relative to the above deceased Officer's effects: Lieut. S. K. Smith was previously informed that a communication had been addressed to his father on this matter. So far no reply has been received, and in the absence of which no further action can be taken by this office.

In the absence of a will, effects cannot be handed over to any person other than the deceased's next-of-kin, or his or her nominee.

If Lieut. Smith has in his possession a letter authorising him to take over his late brother's effects it should be forwarded to this office and the effects can be despatched to him.

With regard to the late Lieut. C. B. Clift's effects: These were forwarded to Newfoundland 1/12/16 for disposal and presumably dealt with according to usual process of law.

Dear Sir:-

Our Second Lieut. Stephen K. Smith who is now home for a few days, informs me that when Second Lieut. ~~Samuel R. Smith~~ was missing April 14/1917 there was a balance of something over $30 to the credit of his (Second Lieut. Samuel R. Smith) account at the Bank of Montreal No. 8 Pall Mall, Waterloo Place, London, S. W. England. Strange to say we have never heard anything about this amount, and our Second Lieut. Stephen K. Smith felt rather surprised when I told him we had heard nothing about it. This is a matter of gross neglect on someone's part why this amount was not transferred to his Parents after the young man was officially presumed dead.

I shall now leave the above matter in your hands for attention, and would ask you to make the necessary enquiries, and have the balance whatever amount it may be forwarded along to us, the rightful and lawful owners.

I shall expect to hear from you soon, advising us what you are doing to have this important matter promptly attended to.

I notice the Monthly Allotment Money which Second Lieut. Samuel R. Smith allotted to Alphonsus Smith, has been stopped. Can you explain why this should be, this Monthly Allotment has not been received by him (Alphonsus Smith) for months, whereas I know other parties get their Monthly Allotment Money regular, although the young man who allotted it has died or been killed. Therefore I consider it only right and just, that if others still get their Monthly Allotment Money, that the Monthly Allotment made by Second Lieut. Samuel R. Smith to his Brother Alphonsus Smith should be remitted him (Alphonsus Smith) as long as the same rule applies to others, and that for each month past where the Monthly Allotment has not been paid, the full amount of arrears to be paid him (Alphonsus Smith) and from henceforward he should get the Monthly Allotment allotted to him (Alphonsus Smith), as well as other parties.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:-

Referring to - your letter of July, 18th.,

I beg to state, that any balance that may have been in the Bank of Montreal to the credit of 2/Lt. Samuel R. Smith is beyond our control, and is a matter which you should take up with the Bank of Montreal.

With regard to the allotment of 2/Lt. S.R. Smith

I beg to advise you, that in cases where allotment of deceased soldiers have been paid to parents they have been continued without question, as advances on account of possible pension; where they have been payable to other than parents, they have been discontinued, except in cases where it can be shown that the party who received the allotment previous to the soldier's death, was entirely dependant upon him.

Under this ruling the allotment of the late 2/Lt. S.R. Smith, which was payable to his brother Alphonsus, was discontinued, the opinion being, that if the Payee of an allotment considered himself entitled to Pension or Compensation on account of the deceased soldier, he would make application for continuance of the allotment, stating the grounds on which he considered himself entitled to it.

August, 1st. 1918.

John Smith, Esq.,

Br. Breton.

If Alphonsus has been entirely dependent upon the late 2/Lt. Smith, I would advise him to communicate with the Board of Pension Commissioners, setting his claim before them and asking for adjustment of same.
