Gentlemen:

We have a claim pending on the above life, who is reported as having died of wounds on April 13th, 1918, and undertook to get from the War Department an official record of the death.

We are advised that there is no such record in Ottawa and it is suggested that we communicate with you.

Will you be good enough to look up your records, and if you find that you have evidence of the death, please send us an official copy.

Yours truly,
