July 19, 1916.

Dear Madam,

It was with the greatest regret that the Government received the cablegram from the Record Office London, intimating that your dear son, Private Arthur H. Young, had died of wounds at the Third Echelon Hospital on the 6th instant.

Permit me on behalf of the Government, as well as for myself, to express to you the sincerest sympathy at this time. Our hearts naturally feel the loss of loved ones but it will be no doubt some consolation to you to remember that your gallant boy came forward at the Call of King and Country and gave his life in defence of the principles of Righteousness, Truth and Liberty. We are proud of our brave lads and also of the noble fathers and mothers who so unselfishly gave their boys when the call of Duty came. He has laid down the earthly weapons of his warfare ^{and} he now wears the Soldier's Crown of Victory. And his name will be inscribed upon the glorious Roll of Honour and be held in fragrant memory by all his fellow-countrymen. He bravely faced the foe and fought well for his King and Country and, when Victory comes and Peace again reigns o'er the earth, it will be a pleasant memory for you that in this achievement he bore no small part.

I trust that you may have the presence and consolation of the Great Father of us all.

With sincere sympathy,

Believe me to be,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary

Mrs. ...
