Dear Sir. -

With reference to your letter of April 2nd, I regret that your former letter which was forwarded me by the Colonial Secretary got mislaid while we were moving, and consequently no reply was sent you.

I have now to inform you that the allotment of your late son was made to the Bank of Montreal, and in accordance with the decision of the Finance Committee it has been continued, and will be until such time as it is decided whether a pension is to be paid to you or otherwise.

The amounts are deposited in the joint names of your late son, and yourself.

Yours truly,
