

Cahill, John J., Regt. No. 966

Mentioned in Despatches

London Gazette, 4th January 1917

He took part in a raid on the night of 27/28 June, 1916 South of Beaumont-Hamel. He showed conspicuous gallantry in bringing in a wounded man, and after the raid went out on his own initiative to bring in another wounded man and was never heard of again.