

Loveless, John, Regt. No. 2970

Military Medal

London Gazette, March 13th 1918

Action Date, November 20th 1917 – Cambrai

When his company was held up by a strong pocket of snipers, he showed great courage and initiative in getting his Lewis gun into action on a flank under heavy fire and thereby captured the sniping post. It was entirely due to his initiative that the advance was not further delayed.
