It is much regretted that through the gross carelessness of a clerk formerly employed in this office, since transferred for duty elsewhere, that memorandum exchanged with O.C. Depot together with these Marriage and Birth Certificates, etc. among sundry completed papers relating to Overseas repatriations were filed as finished with; meanwhile the O.C. Depot has been unnecessarily applied to for them. The N.C.O. at fault being elsewhere, escapes the severe reprimand he deserves.

It is hoped that those concerned have not been seriously prejudiced for a fault for which this office is entirely responsible, please.
