

McGrath, Thomas White, Regt. No. 856

Military Medal

London Gazette, December 21st 1916

Action Date, July 1st 1916 – Beaumont-Hamel

For conspicuous gallantry on July 1st 1916, in attending to the wounded under heavy fire. On July 1st 1916, near Beaumont-Hamel, he showed conspicuous devotion to duty as a Red Cross attendant under heavy shell and machine gun fire during daylight, bringing in wounded men after the attack had failed. His conduct was most gallant.