

C.R. 0-146

Government House,
St. John's, Nfld.
30 August, 1915.

Dear Captain McNeil,

I have much pleasure in offering to you my personal thanks for the service which you have rendered on special duty during the last month.

I know that you undertook this special duty with keen alacrity and at considerable inconvenience to your business affairs.

I desire to thank you for the excellent service which you have rendered to Newfoundland and to the cause of the British Empire.

Yours sincerely,

Capt. (Temp.) T.M. McNeil.
