

Rees, Frederick S., Regt. No. 2626

Military Medal

London Gazette, January 14th 1918

Action Date, October 9th 1917 – Broembeek

For conspicuous bravery under heavy machine gun fire, he brought several messages of an important nature. His services were valuable as most of the N.C.O.s had become casualties, and he helped in a great way in organizing for the attack on the 3rd Objective. His personal work in the counterattack is worthy of special mention.